Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.In 2004, I moved to Hobart to be with my Tasmanian wife as we wanted to start a family and she preferred to live in her homeland. At the time, I was a pro-boxer, known as The Hobo, so I was thrilled there was a seasoned amateur gym nearby. Plus the Boxing Promoter happened to be a colleague of my manager in Sydney. Little did I know these unsavoury vultures would use me just to make money, and they treated and abused me in the most criminal and corrupt way possible. One night when I went to watch my sparring partners at a boxing promotion in Hobart, I was informed I wasn't welcome and told to leave. Though I didn't understand why, I disregarded them and headed to a nearby hotel where I played Eight Ball for a few hours. As I was leaving the hotel, I was Coward-Punched onto the concrete street, causing multiple brain contusions and my skull to be fractured in two places. After being in a coma for days, I woke in...
