

Me, My Husband and My In-Laws (Paperback)

By Eturuvie Erebor

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .For centuries, millions of women from various parts of the world have found it challenging to get along with the extended family members of their spouses. Many have come to dread the five letter double barrel word, "in-law" and still many find it an awkward moment when they are in the presence of those who fall into this category. It is no longer news that failure to get along with the extended family members of one's spouse can create unnecessary tension in the home even leading to the breakdown of the marriage which regrettably has been the case with some marriages. In this book, Eturuvie Erebor looks at three (3) major reasons for the continuous disharmony between women (especially Christian women) and their in-laws; a problem which you will no doubt agree is as old as the institution of marriage itself. Albeit the book focuses on women and how they relate with their in-laws, the men have not been let off the hook entirely as the author is certain that many a time their actions or inactions are at...
