Glory Publisher, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Parenting is for adults who have matured enough to understand the tasks involved. Many parents do not understand what it means to bring up children. They unknowingly lead their children down a wrong path that will be regretted in the future. This book has been written to educate parents about the minor mistakes in parenting that could develop into major problems in the future. It reveals the mind of God about parenting, showing that love has to be the bedrock on which to bring up children. The Bible reveals a great deal about how to train up children, and if parents can follow it and apply it in their daily lives, it will produce glorious rewards in the future. Therefore, most of the information in this book has its roots in the Bible. The reader will discover how to get parenting right and how to deal with the common mistakes that parents make in bringing up their children.
