

Respect the Jux

By Frank C Matthews

Gallery Books/Karen Hunter Publishing. Paperback. Condition: New. 256 pages. Dimensions: 8.2in. x 5.3in. x 0.9in. MEET CAT In Jamaica . . . he learned the art of the jux: robbing people by studying their everyday movements. By the age of eight, Cat was shoplifting and purse-snatching. By ten, he had his first gun. At fifteen, he committed his first murder. MAKE THE GANG In New York City . . . he created The Order: a secret society of thieves who played by Cat's rules. He taught his crew how to pull off the perfect jux. Made them swear on a bible and a bullet. Robbed dealers, pushers, thugs. And raked in millions. Then Cat was betrayed by one of his own men. BREAK THE RULES In Miami . . . he set up a new operation. Bigger game, bigger stakes. The targets are prime athletes, politicians, drug lords, celebrities and the payoff is huge. But the party scene is as dangerous as the ladies are beautiful. Cat has to watch his back and remember the rules: Never trust a thief. Never get caught. And always . . . RESPECT THE JUX A novel based on true events, written by a man who experienced it within two degrees of...
