Pugh, of Ohio, on the Condition of Affairs in Kansas Territory: Delivered in the United States Senate, May 26, 1856 The bill to authorize the people of the Territory of Kansas to form a constitution and State; government, preparatory to their admission into the Union when they have the requisite population, be in under consideration, Mr. Pugh said: The condition of affairs in Kansas Territory for the past year has been such as to fill the heart of a patriotic statesman with unaffected sorrow and alarm. Together, like twin sisters, that Territory and the Territory of Nebraska came into existence on the 30th of May, 1854, by virtue of one act of Congress, and with organizations in all respects the same. In Nebraska, so far as we can learn, quiet and order have prevailed, and the foundations of a prosperous State have been securely established. But Kansas, almost from the hour of its birth, has been the arena of conflict, violence, and bloodshed. These disorders became more intense, as well as more...
