

The Silent Traveller in London

By Yee Chiang

Interlink Publishing Group. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 216 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.3in. x 0.6in. I can imagine there must be a good number of people who will still wonder why I have no pigtail on my head, or who think I must be the same sort of person as Mr. Wu or Charlie Chan! By the 1930s Western books about China were common. But a book about the West, and particularly London, written by a Chinese author, was a rarity-and continues to be so. Chiang Yees account of London, first published in 1938, is original in more ways than one. Not only one of the first widely available books written by a Chinese author in English, it also reverses the expected conventions of travel writing. For here the exotic subject matter is none other than London and its people, quizzically observed as an alien culture by a visiting foreigner. Immersing himself in the strange rituals of London life, Chiang Yee set out to learn about Londoners, their habits and their pleasures. In pubs and cafs, cinemas and art galleries, he watched the locals at work and at play. Fascinated by such social conventions as afternoon tea and discussing the...
