The young ladybug after many adventures will discover that inside of her has been always a great power .She needed just only a short time to grow up. The story wants to transmit some brief messages: -difficulty in life must always be faced with courage, with trust in yourself, with optimism in order to overcome it; -you should never judge somebody under the appearance; -neither the beauty nor accumulating goods in life nor physical strength are really important: the essential is the purity of spirit, the beauty of heart, to help others without asking for anything in return, to have the capability to forgive everyone and mainly above everything to love each other.
