This is a complex novel that weaves elements of fact fiction, but at its core the author sums it this: Love's story of a nameless man, his appointed rhapsodist their charge to extend agape love to the entire biogeochemical realm that it may be saved. The story extends from the author's true clinical death experience. He said Birth death we all have in common in them is no choice. However, in my death I saw the imminent death of all life on earth as a choice that was being made by humankind. Ways to reverse this cycle were also revealed. He published this data on his websites but thought he wasn't reaching enough fast enough. So, he turned to his past as a writer to create a book intended to return drama to its past purpose as a positive motivator of human behavior. If...
