

On the Beauty of Christ and Christian Reason (Paperback)

By Jeremy Nichols

Ave Crux Publishing, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . On the Beauty of Christ and Christian Reason is a concise, reasoned defense of the Christian faith. It demonstrates that faith in Christ can be arrived at through rigorous analysis with appreciation for beauty. It is accessible, compelling, and brief. Written for a non-academic readership without a background in theology, aesthetics, or philosophy, On the Beauty of Christ and Christian Reason fits snugly in the pocket or purse of anyone who wishes to understand Christianity rationally. Approbation: A sincere and devout reading of the Christian revelation, and I think that the beautiful idea approach might very well be as far as one can get, by explaining the power of Christianity to those who have not felt it. Dr. Roger Scruton - Former lecturer and professor of aesthetics at Birkbeck College, London; former professor of philosophy and university professor, Boston University; and author of over 30 books, including Art and Imagination (1974), The Aesthetics of Music (1997), and A Political Philosophy: Arguments for Conservatism (2006).
