One of his last acts in connection with his published poems was revising the proof-sheets of this volume, which he did with the assistance of one of his children. Spiritual Songs is, perhaps, the most popular of his many volumes of religious poetry; and, if it convey to readers in this and another generation the impression of a mind tenderly sensitive to the sunshine of nature and of grace, it may be a satisfaction to them to be assured that the accident and fatal illness which so suddenly arrested his work, and broke up his earthly home, proved to all who watched beside him the brightness of his faith, and the cheerfulness of his love towards man and piety towards God.
