

How to Laugh (Paperback)

By Miles Champion

Adventures in Poetry, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . This book usually ship within 10-15 business days and we will endeavor to dispatch orders quicker than this where possible. Brand New Book. There really is an intelligence to these that creates a texture unlike any other; I can't yet describe it but it has to do with variable motions and rhythms, time signatures almost, that strike me as always alert, always attentive, always capable. --William Fuller These poems are all inviting, and it seems to me that's an amazingly rare quality in poems, and even this old Brit submits to the pleasure they give. . . . There's radiance from all these poems. --John Wilkinson Miles Champion uses just the necessary words, and puts them in interesting places: definitely hard to film. --Tom Raworth Walls Walls give bound to a susceptible formalism Spring bends the show of things to a brain-like source Signs of rust abandon a whistle or paint chip Problems are prefigured like flowers Roofs frisk in the air Bridges flip an aesthetic switch Leaves transfigure maples and alders Dust comes into ear Extremities milling about Miles Champion moved to New York City from...
