The superintendent is given large authority and much discretionary power in accepting credentials of candidates in lieu of examinations, and also in selecting the members of the committee on examinations. Portland represents the small cities, and it illustrates how the examination of teachers is centralized, by law, in the superintendent s office. Cincinnati is among the larger cities and shows how a state imposes on a city school system an archaic system of examinations. It also shows how a large local board of education can be equally non-progressive in constituting a board of examiners of three members, two of whom are laymen. Worcester is among the second class cities in size and was selected to illustrate an undesirable method, too commonly employed, of placing the discharge of the highly technical and professional function of examining teachers in the hands of a committee..
