Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Being raised by a single mother, sisters Tisha and Tosha Brown had it instilled in them at an early age to always be there for one another no matter what. Their mother, Daisy made sure they understood this and would never forget it. You will meet a lot of people in this world, men and women. Some may become some of the best people you know, while others will be the worst. At the end of the day motherfuckers will stab you in the back, but I want y all to always remember, y all are sisters before anything. Having to grow up faster than they thought when their mother passed, the girls took on a whole new meaning of LOYALTY. Doing whatever it takes to make sure they needed and wanted for nothing they took to the streets. Don t get it twisted selling their bodies wasn t on the menu but selling some of the purest cocaine that Newark, NJ had ever seen was! The girls built themselves a team of the wildest cats in the game. But what happens when the ones you thought were loyal can t be trusted anymore. The men in the game ain t feeling women running a business that they feel should only consist of men. But once respect is earned and love comes into play will the sisters still go by what they were taught or let the streets tear them apart. Being crowned the queen wasn t intended and the love of thy sister is all they knew, but will the motto money over niggas, it s all business, nothing personal still stand when the gun smoke clears?.
