A collection of seven short stories - each with a twist in the tale! Ian George takes you on an eternal journey, a false identity, through faithless cynicism, a fairy tale, lost love, a predator back to another eternal journey. Seven tales that challenge beliefs and question faith, that break down the barriers between love and hate, life and death. 1.Don t go Home Tonight You damn bitch, he spat the words. She recoiled from his raised hand as he slipped his fingers through his attractively tousled hair. The smile on his handsome face was a humourless triumphant snarl. He enjoyed controlling her without touching, he was a puppet master and she was his marionette. 2.The Avatar He had not tried to hold her. Perhaps that was why he had lost her in the first place, because he did not try hard enough. He remembered watching her retreating back. The door had slammed with such finality behind her, he knew it was over. He had not seen her since. But there she was, staring in monochromatic blankness out...
