Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Gorgo holds her husband's shredded scarlet cloak. She feels freedom echoing far beyond dust and bones. She feels that Leonidas still lives, and that he is fighting for freedom's echo to move deeper into the future. She feels him being submerged by history's tide, which takes him far. The Spartan king feels himself drifting into the abyss. But then he feels the will to live, to live freedom and let freedom live. He wills the tide to move from formlessness to form. Freedom or death. There is no other choice. Leonidas breathes in this freedom as the tide moves forward. Seconds pass while history marches on. The king opens his eyes faintly in the tide's rolling shadows. He hears voices emerging from the tide. The voices become one. They merge with the freedom that the tide embodies. He meanders through the depths, reaching for the shore. Tyranny obscures the light shining on the tide. The voices are drowned out by silence, but then the voices merge again and become one. The warrior feels the voice echoing...
