Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Where does a man go as he alters his beliefs to new ones, and breaks the hold of the old? He goes deep and becomes, a Rainmaker. Carter Man is nothing, until he finds a philosophy that says, You Create Your Own Reality. Carter s going to find that out the hard way. He softens even as he strengthens and finds love on the drought stricken prairies of Alberta. This is the story of a boy ravaged by psychological abuse who escapes as a child to become a man with a mission in mind, an odd mission, but a necessary one in a climate-challenged world where drought ravages the lands and the people can only call to their gods for relief. And none comes. Until the RainMaker appears. This is the story of a process of mind used to become a RainMaker, but it is really the story of any man or woman or lucky child who learns that through their own mind they create all of their reality. It is a brutal story, at first, then a story of the struggle to learn what is impossible to learn, and finally, a story of people confronting the impossible. The novel shows that anything can become real with effort, determination, and in the Rainmaker s unfolding, motivation. Meet the brute of a father who treats his step-son like a despised recruit in the navy, the carpenter who almost loses his head, the mechanic who shrugs at others problems as he thinks only of money, the sweet drug addled native woman who finds a ride home, and the concrete truck driver who wrecks as he builds. Listen in with the struggling fast food worker,...
