Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Sermon Upon the Assassination of Abraham Lincoln The following scenes, descriptive of the excitement attending the delivery of Mr. Gaddis sermon, is taken from the Cincinnati Daily Times, Monday, April 18th: Long before dark, Sunday evening, an immense crowd congregated in front of the Methodist Church, on Sixth street, between Vine and Race, presided over by Rev. M. P. Gaddis. No sooner had the doors been thrown open, than the crowd immediately filled the church to overflowing, but not one-fourth of the crowd could get in, and thousands remained outside, filling up all the approaches to it; and when the time came for the pastor to open the services, he found it a matter of impossibility to do so, as he could not even get an entrance to the church. Finding it impossible to proceed with the services in his church, a committee of several of our well known citizens, having procured the consent of Mr. Gaddis to deliver his sermon in Mozart Hall, providing that Hall could be obtained, an announcement was immediately made...
