*****.quot;Jasperquot; is an original horror story about a mysterious evil presence that resided in an ancient toxic dump. The characters appear real and my readers may enjoy being involved in their horrific experiences. Hayswood was a quiet, dusty town at the edge of the Kansas desert, much like many other small American towns. The town which used to bustle with activity, as the people who lived there bought this and that at the many stores along Main Street, was now a shadowy frightening place. Ronald s bar was a favourite hangout of those who thought they were better than the rest. The dilapidated old Aircraft factory, which dominated the landscape at the edge of town, had an evil reputation and was a place to avoid during the hours of darkness. The town had been a quiet, forgotten backwater until the KLD came and the killings started. The main storyline starts in Kansas in the mid nineteen fifties, with the birth of a boy child in a dilapidated old barn. Two women from the State Children...
