Vintage Publishing, United Kingdom, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. In September 1996, a fourteen-year-old Fatima Bhutto hid in a windowless dressing room, shielding her baby brother while shots rang out in the streets outside the family home in Karachi. This was the evening that her father Murtaza was murdered, along with six of his associates. In December 2007, Benazir Bhutto, Fatima s aunt, and the woman she had publically accused of ordering her father s murder, was assassinated in Rawalpindi. The history of this extraordinary family mirrors the tumultuous events of Pakistan itself, and the quest to find the truth behind her father s murder has led Fatima to the heart of her country s volatile political establishment. It is the history of a nation from Partition through the struggle with India over Kashmir, the Cold War, the Soviet invasion of Afghanistan up to the post 9/11 War on Terror . It is also a book about a daughter s love for her father and her search to uncover, and to understand, the truth of his life and death. It is a book about a family and nation riven by murder, corruption, conspiracy and division, written by one who has lived...
