The officials explained that information on whether an applicant had received a buyout may not be readily available to the hiring agency. For example, the information may be in the individuals official personnel folder, which the hiring agency may not receive for several weeks, or in a computer system that is located at the agency that paid the buyout. In addition, such certification would assist agencies that were hiring individuals who had received buyouts from other agencies, , such as those CPDF especially those agencies that do not participate in the in the judicial and legislative branches of government. For agencies OPM covered by 5 C. F. R. 7. 2, it is mandatory that they provide with CPDF personnel information for use in the, among other things, unless specifically exempted by statute. The need for hiring officials to readily know whether a job applicant is a former federal employee who took a buyout was made even more important by the enactment of the 1996 legislation. As previously mentioned, this legislation requires buyout recipients under its authority to repay the full buyout amount before the employees first day of work. Of the nine agencies, our review showed that only USDA and the USDA and the Department Department of the Treasury had issued guidance notifying component of the Treasury Issued repayment provision. In addition, as a result of our FWRA heads of the FWRA Notification inquiry into apparent buyout repayment violations at these FWRA Guidance to Its components,...
