FRAMING THE WORD: GENDER AND GENRE IN CARIBBEAN WOMEN S WRITING (PAPERBACK)

Whiting Birch Ltd, United Kingdom, 1997. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Shifting the focus from poetry to the novel; from Afro-Cuban writing to the representation of Asian-Caribbean women; from the oral tradition to the scribal, this critical anthology develops the debate concerning ways of reading Caribbean women s literature. Framing The Word offers challenging perspectives from writers and critics alike writing and/or teaching in the Caribbean, the UK and the USA. Reflecting on the diversity within that body of literature generally known as Caribbean women s writing, Framing The Word moves beyond the celebratory to explore and substantiate the central questions of gender and genre. This book will be of special interest to students, teachers and a wider readership interested to become better informed about this remarkable and vibrant new writing.
