Outskirts Press. Paperback. Condition: New. 124 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.3in.A heartfelt and highly personal account of Pura Regalado, who overcame demonic possession to then embark upon a life of enlightenment in the world following her experiences. She welcomes all who wish to debunk her story. Through conveying her visions of telepathic communications with God, Pura believes it is her mission to save the world. She offers innumerable prescription of how this can be attained in this extraordinary account of her life experiences. Although tied to Jesus, Pura is critical of how Christianity has been misrepresented through the centuries. She believes distortions abound so she seeks to correct these misapprehensions. Here you will discover a very intense, wide ranging, colorful, kind spirited yet provocative book, based on a personal spiritual connection with God, as Pura Regalado enlightens and teaches us the path she has discovered. Pura Regalado earned a B. S. in Architecture at the Mapua Institute of Technology in her native Philippines and taught there before migrating to Florida. She worked for an Architectural firm that specialized in luxury homes. Her last assignment before going on retirement was to supervise the construction of a multimillion dollar home in Florida, which got the Best Construction of the Year Award in Hollywood, Florida.
