Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Mining Magazine, Vol. 2: London, January, 1910 The year 1910 starts cheerfully. An era of industrial expansion is assured, unless unforeseen circumstances arise to disturb the peace of the world. Industrial development calls for the metals and thereby directly stimulates mining. Civilization rolls forward on iron wheels, the interchange of news and of commodities is aided by copper, for coinage and decoration the race needs gold and silver, for domestic and architectural purposes the use of lead and zinc is required - in short, the basis of the art of modern living is metallic. Thus the growth of confidence, the widening of trade, the quickening of commerce are reflected in the speculative activities of the mineral explorer and mine operator. In continental Europe, especially Germany, trade is better, with indications of continued rebound from recent heaviness. Trade Prospects. - A sign of the times is the purchase of diamonds. It is said that Disraeli measured industrial prosperity by the consumption of sulphuric acid, and in later days Lord Rothschild has selected the demand for...
