The Surgeon General is charged with the administrative details of the medical department, the government of hospitals, the regulation of the duties of surgeons and assistant surgeons, and the appointment of acting medical officers, when needed, for local or detached service. He will issue orders and instructions relating to the professional duties of medical officers; and all communications from them, which require his action, will be made directly to him. 2. The Medical Director of an army corps will have the general control of the medical officers. 3. The Medical Director will inspect the hospitals under his control, and see that the rules and regulations with regard to them and the duties of the surgeons and assistant surgeons, are enforced. 4. He will examine the case books, prescription and diet books, and ascertain the nature of diseases which may have prevailed, and their probable causes; recommend the best method of prevention, and also make such suggestions relative to the situation, construction and economy of...

Reviews

An extremely great ebook with perfect and lucid answers. This is certainly for anyone who states that there was not a well worth looking at. It's been designed in an exceptionally simple way and is particularly only soon after I finished reading through this ebook in which actually transformed me, modify the way in my opinion.
