Blow Her She was like Jazz Hell She was Jazz Her glance struck chords in your heart Her touch instructed the butterflies to dance Her voice teased your ears As if you were truly listening for the first time Her body made you want to ask her for a dance Her smell stuck with you Like a song stuck in your head Her laugh harmonized like the trumpets of the angels Her walk made people dance An unorganized rhythm to move out of her way And her kiss God, her kiss makes you want to sing For an instrumental band She was just Jazz.
