Some reviews from Amazon. com Ugly Beautiful - New edition - Autumn 2013 Boyko Ovcharov - Despite being a deeply dramatic story, this book has its undeniable pluses, including, among other things: action, twists, suspense and most of all, great narrative and a love story. The author is definitely reputable and worth reading further. Cathy Hudson - I have to admit that I wasn't gripped by this story from the first page. I am glad that I stuck with it. It turned into a truly terrifying story after keeping the reader guessing constantly about what was really going on. I could have done without the bad guy turns good after falling in love thread woven through the book, but definitely a great introduction to this writer. I will be looking out for more works by this author. Cphe - This was a pretty macabre novella. The story was well written and had some really dark themes, madness, abuse. I've read other work by this author which I also enjoyed. Synopsis A tragic tale of doomed romance. Jason a tormented soul and womanizing gangster, does a runner with a suitcase full of drug money after an earth shattering tragedy which rips his world apart. Running for his life he disappears into the heart of the gorgeous Scottish highlands to lay low in a secluded cottage before plotting his next move. On his second day of hiding Jason discovers the mysterious body of a young and hauntingly beautiful woman lying unconscious at the bottom of a hill. The woman has no memory of who she is or how she ended up there. So Jason carries the beauty back to his cottage and tenderly nurses her...
