Outskirts Press, United States, 2008. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .When the mind has no boundaries; imagination has no limits Covering a diverse collection of poetry, philosophical phrases, photos and more, Karen Lynn S. promises to deliver her work with a perpetual intensity. Karen s technique is considered to be a phantasm of raw, street savvy, inspiring insight that demonstrates her unique style of expression. The Crow s Nest is based on today s failing society, world conflicts, killing of the innocent in the name of religion, greed, politics and the wrath (or punishment) of mother nature. Karen writes in The Crow s Nest those of the brave, the purpose of our founding fathers and condemns those that stand behind the cowardly masks they wear to inflict fear and death to those of less fortitude. Yet still, as only Karen can, she writes about these issues without losing her unique, sensual style. Karen s hope is that through her work, The Crow s Nest and others, she can help bring back an important part of history, people and techniques she considers to have been lost to the fast pace of today s society.
