Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Japanese Kabuki Journals to Write in Make Great Gifts for Artists, Actors, and Japan Lovers Think Japan and your thoughts may turn to the traditional Japanese form of drama called kabuki. The Japanese drama portrayed on the cover is that of a Japanese street vendor selling paper and books and her calligraphy copybook where she writes and sells poems. In this lined, blank journal, you can capture thoughts, experiments, and ideas. The work of artist Okumura Masanobu inspired this notebook, journal, or diary for all nature lovers whether girls and women or boys and men. Record thoughts and activities and keep lists. You ll love the two added coloring book images, too. (Great gift idea!) Like any good notebook, the portable self-help journal has many uses: Write down your thoughts, record activities, goals, action plans, chats, texts, even dreams, whatever makes you happy. Want to remember anything? Write it down. You ll use this carry-with-you journal every day. Scribble secrets on the lined notebook pages. Use it to manage your ever-growing list of passwords. Don t forget to color the two coloring...
