Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Mr. Cobbett s Remarks on Our Indian Empire and Company of Trading Sovereigns: Reprinted From the Register of 1804 to 1822 [In the Political Register, of the late Mr. Cobbett, there are many articles and passages upon the subject of our Indian Empire; upon the numerous grievances of the native people, and upon the negligence, rapacity, and dishonesty attending the government of East Indians by Englishmen in power. Some of those articles and passages are here reprinted. Both Parliament and people, in this country, seem to get less and less worthy of respect in proportion as they fancy themselves more and more civilised and intelligent. Sir Philip Francis once said in the House of Commons, when speaking of the disposition to lean upon foreigners, - A base, corrupt, and abject people, when once they are properly frightened, will submit to any thing. The Royal Speech, proroguing Parliament, on the 28th ult., was delivered by commission, and not in person. In that speech her Majesty has been advised to express (to the Lords and Gentlemen) her...
