Yet being so exotic, the poem demands a word or two of introduction. The Gita Govinda, then, or Song of Govind, is a Sanskrit idyll, or little pastoral drama, in which - under the form of Krishna, an incarnation of the god Vishnoo - the human soul is displayed in its relations alternately with earthly and celestial beauty. Krishna - at once human and divine - is first seen attracted by the pleasures of the senses (personified by the shepherdesses in the wood), and wasting his affections upon the delights of their illusory world.
