

Casual Observations

By Kakanar

KAKANAR. Paperback. Condition: New. 132 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.3in. Have you wondered, why is it that the person offering you advice is considered to be the wise one even though you have to put in all the hard work? Have you wondered if Cancer is really preventable? Or are we all naturally born to be racists? Why do we believe in Gods, Superstitions and Astrology? Myths? What do our concepts on life and afterlife inform us of our human condition? Through this series of essays an attempt is made to explore some of these thoughts. Some of the chapters pertaining to History and Economy and On Gun Culture have a more US centric point of focus, while the others like those on Altruism and Ownership of Thought and the concept of Truth are more general in context. There are no absolutes to be encountered here, only subjective conjectures which I believe might find or hope to find resonance in readers' minds. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
