By Alice M. Greenwald, Clifford Chanin

Rizzoli International Publications, United States, 2013. Hardback. Book Condition: New. 323 x 231 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. This poignant selection of artifacts and their stories from September 11 provides an official, lasting record of that day s experience. In both text and photography, the story of September 11 is told through a selection of powerfully moving artifacts from the 9/11 museum s collection that serve as touchstones to the day and its aftermath. From crushed FDNY trucks to the steel that was pierced as planes struck the Twin Towers, from victims property pulled from the wreckage and returned to families (who later donated the property to the museum) to spontaneous memorials collected from around Ground Zero, the array of objects tell complex and often surprising stories. Poignant artifacts as monumental as the Vesey Street staircase which offered an escape for thousands fleeing the towers and as intimate as a loved one s wedding band or last recorded phone message are selected to illuminate people s experiences during and after September 11, 2001, and February 26, 1993. The mission of the National September 11 Memorial Museum is to bear solemn witness to the terrorist attacks against the World...

Reviews

This is actually the very best publication i have read through till now. It is definitely simplistic but unexpected situations in the 50 % in the pdf. You can expect to like just how the article writer compose this pdf.

Thorough guideline! Its this type of good read. It is really simplistic but shocks from the 50 percent from the publication. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.
