Createspace, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Look now! for glad and golden hours Come swiftly on the wing; O, rest beside the weary road, And hear the angels sing. Poets have been writing about angels for hundreds of years; about how they visit us, guard us and lead us into the paths of light. This collection comprises beautiful verse from writers including William Shakespeare, Emily Dickinson and William Blake. Whether you believe angels really exist as divine messengers, or whether you view them more as symbolic representations of love and positive energy, this book will give you pause for thought and reflection.
