Mr. Speaker, it is with the deepest regret that I announce the death of my colleague, the Hon. Campbell Slep, which occurred very suddenly at his home in Big Stone Gap on the morning of October the 13th last. At some future time I shall ask the House to set apart a day when Members may be afforded the opportunity to pay tribute to his life, character, and public services. Wednesday, February 26, 1908. Mr. Jones, of Virginia. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent for the present consideration of the order which I send to the Clerk s desk. The Clerk read as follows: Ordered, That at the hour of 2 o clock p. m. on Saturday, March 7, legislative duties be suspended and eulogies on the life, character, and public services of the Hon. Campbell Slep, late a Representative from Virginia, shall be in order. There was no objection to the consideration, and the order was agreed to. Saturday, March 7, 1908. The House met at 12 o clock m. The Chaplain, Rev. Henry N. Couden, offered the following prayer: We thank Thee, our Father in heaven, for the beautiful custom, long since established in the Congress of the United States, of memorializing those of its Members who pass from earth to the realms beyond and rest from their labors.
