Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Travis talks about his day today. Today was a day that Travis had to pick up his medication. He explains how bears and ghosts keep him from getting his medication sometimes by telling him that the doctor and pharmacist are trying to kill him with the medicine. Travis hears voices of people talking to him and telling him that the medication is going to kill him. Learn how every day skills are hard. Travis never imagined life being so hard but the psychosis makes life very interesting and scary. Travis hates waiting in line for his medication because everyone is talking about him and telling him that he is a bad person. Travis talks about how the voices and hallucinations have caused him to do some crazy things in life. Travis talks about not being able to tell if what is happening in his mind is really happening or if it is just his brain playing tricks on him. Sometimes it is like a movie or video game playing in his head and he has to try and tell if what s happening is real or fake. There are positive and negative symptoms of Schizophrenia and Travis will address all of these issues in this book. People with Schizophrenia do often commit suicide. They commit suicide with both the positive symptoms and the negative symptoms. Sadly there are more suicides because of negative symptoms than there are positive symptoms. Travis wants the reader to imagine what it would be like to hear voices, have hallucinations, see bears and ghosts, and talking to spirits. Reading this book will give you a new and fresh perspective of what living with Schizophrenia might be...
