Stories of an Accidental Gold Miner. Tales of the promoters, the miners, and the rogues of finance, who plied the business of gold during the last gold rush in the twentieth century. Told by an entrepreneur-economist thrown into the business by his friendship with the multi-millionaire trader Sell-the-Pig Jim. A wickedly funny read by a born storyteller and an astute observer of the times. A must read for all those interested in what drives the second oldest business in the world.
