Excerpt from The Osprey, Vol. 4: November, 1899 Occasionally, in midsummer, they seem to be scarce, but what the cause of this scarcity is I am unable to say. Under date of August 1, 1879, I find the following note: Shot three hags, but they are very scarce. I am somewhat inclined to the opinion that they find abundance of squid at that season, and therefore do not come about the vessels so much as when hungry. When or where the hagdon breeds is unknown to me. My opinion is that it breeds in winter. I have Opened many hundreds of these birds, but have never found their sexual organs in a condition that would indicate they were incubating.
