The Popes Mule OF all the clever sayings, proverbs, or saws with which our Provence peasants embellish their discourse, I know of none more picturesque or more peculiar than this. Within a radius of fifteen leagues of my mill, when anybody mentions a spiteful, vindictive man, he will say: Look out for that man! he is like the Popes mule, that keeps her kick for seven years. I tried for a long time to find out the source of that proverb, what that Papal mule might be, and that kick kept for seven years. No one here was able to give me any information on that subject, not even Francet Mamal, my fife-player, who, however, has the whole legendary history of Provence at his finger-ends. Francet agrees with me that there is probably some old tradition of Provence behind it; but he has never heard it mentioned except in the proverb. You wont find that anywhere except in the Grasshoppers Library, said the old fifer, with a laugh. I thought the suggestion a good one, and as the Grasshoppers Library is right at my door, I shut myself up there for a week. It is a wonderful library, splendidly stocked, open to poets day and night, the attendants being little librarians with cymbals, who play for you all the time. I passed some delightful days there, and after a week of investigation--on my back--I ended by discovering what I wanted to know, that is...
