County some engagements are weekly and others yearly, and in County Longford, engagements are yearly, half-yearly, and weekly. Generally speaking, the daily engagements are to be found more often in the poorer districts, or in localities where the farms are small, labour not being required all the year round. In many counties ordinary labourers get their food in the farmhouses on working days, the cash wages in such cases being at a lower rate than in districts in which no food is provided. Herds and shepherds are usually engaged by the quarter, the half-year, or the year, and the notice to quit their situations varies considerably. They are frequently paid largely in kind, receiving a free house, some tillage land, potatoes, hay, the right to graze a certain number of animals, to cut peat, and c. in cases where a farmer takes more than one farm,...
