

Oaf in Ophir (Paperback)

By Daniel G Linsteadt

Balboa Press, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . A highlight of every summer for Emory and his little sister, Faye, was their special annual visit to their grandmother. At Baba s house, the kids played by the streams, ate blackberries, watched deer, and ran through the woods to their heart s desire. This summer, Emory was particularly intrigued by the rumor of a magical Oaf living near Baba after discovering his dad s Ophir newspaper clippings. Emory was alert as he explored the streams and wandered through the woods. A flash of light up the hillside began the magical summer he hoped for. A voice floating through the air, the sound of wood twisting in the trees, and a glimpse of a ragged piece of cloth were the first hints of the Oaf. Baba was delighted by Emory s adventures and urged him to offer a sandwich along with a note to the mysterious being who was revealing itself to Emory. The Oaf revealed his magic with nature after Emory was mysteriously protected from a mountain lion attack. Baba finally shared her encounters with the irresistible Oaf and his ways in...
