Robert Burns, D.D., Minister of St. George s, Paisley Whom they served was the King of kings, and Lord of lords, the only Ruler of princes. And the office he gave them no man could lawfully take away: they might be persecuted, they might be put to death by rebels such as they who had crucified their Master, but for these things God would infallibly judge them. As their office essentially differed from and surpassed that held under earthly rulers, so the mode of their inauguration into it essentially and peculiarly varied from that of all others: so exalted, indeed, was their office, that the form employed exactly resembled the form of consecration of our blessed Lord. When the Holy One of Israel was baptized, the Holy Spirit descended upon him in bodily shape, like a dove, and rested upon him. So when our Lord had risen from the dead, he said to the Apostles, Peace be unto you, as (or in the same manner as) my Father hath sent me, even so send I you and when he had said this, he breathed upon them, and saith unto them, Receive ye the holyghost; whosoever sins ye remit, they are remitted, and whosoever sins ye retain, they are retained. And again, on the day of Pentecost, were they fully and visibly ordained to the apostolic office for there appeared unto them cloven tongues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them, and they were all filled. With the Holy Ghost. Such were the awful and extraordinary solemnities attendant upon the consecration of the ministers of...
