FRANCES BURNEY - CECILIA. OR MEMOIRS OF AN HEIRESS: VOLUME II OF III (PAPERBACK)DOWNLOAD PDF

Scribe Publishing, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Frances Burney was born on June 13th, 1752 in Lynn Regis (now King s Lynn). By the age of 8 Frances had still not learned the alphabet and couldn t read. She now began a period of self-education, which included devouring the family library and to begin her own scribblings , these journal writings would document her life and cover the next 72 years. Her journal writing was accepted but writing novels was frowned upon by her family and friends. Feeling that she had been improper, she burnt her first manuscript, The History of Caroline Evelyn, which she had written in secret. It was only in 1778 with the anonymous publication of Evelina that her talents were available to the wider world. She was now a published and admired author. Despite this success and that of her second novel, Cecilia, in 1785, Frances travelled to the court of King George III and Queen Charlotte and was offered the post of Keeper of the Robes. Frances hesitated. She had no wish to be separated from her family, nor to anything that would restrict her time in writing. But, unmarried at 34, she felt obliged to accept and thought that improved social status and income might allow her greater freedom to write. The years at Court were fruitful but took a toll on her health, writing and relationships and in 1790 she prevailed upon her father to request her release from service. He was successful. The ideals of the French Revolution had brought support from many English literates for the ideals of equality and social justice. Frances quickly became attached to General Alexandre D Arblay, an artillery officer who had fled to England. In...
