Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text. Purchasers can download a free scanned copy of the original book (without typos) from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1920 Excerpt: .of technical literature. Concurrently a reference service will produce exhaustive lists of abstracts of previously published information. A complete record of data will be assembled in card encyclopedia form, and available for reference upon occasion. This encyclopedia will also be the depository of much unpublished material from the subscribers own laboratories and libraries. In this work emphasis shall be placed upon the physical and chemical properties of pure metal and alloys, the methods of measurement and analysis, alloying methods, and service tests. Such an organization should have much more than the subscription value to companies intelligently attempting to increase the quality and uses of alloys, to research associations, technical libraries and colleges. It will attempt to co-operate with existing agencies performing such a service in a more limited way, such as the British Institute of Metals.--(Chem. and Metallurgical Engineering, December 29, 1920, p. 1271.) Miss Edith Phail, Librarian of the Scovill Mfg. Co., Waterbury, Conn., contributes an annotated booklist to the Bulletin published monthly in the interest of the employes by the Scovill Foremen s Association. The library facilities of the public high schools of Hawaii are described in U. S. Education Bureau Bulletin 1920, No. 16, p. 250-251. The Swedish Chamber of Commerce of the U. S. A., Produce Exchange Building, New York City, maintains an extensive trade data file as well as a special reference library relating more particularly to Swedish American trade. Both are open to members. The Chamber has issued...
