On Palace Green: A Wedding in Williamsburg, 1807, in the Letters of Those Who Were There. (Paperback)

By Patrick J Heffernan

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. With careful research and keen insights, Patrick Heffernan illuminates an extraordinary set of letters, deftly documenting the interplay of romance, property and power in Virginia after the American Revolution. - Alan Taylor, author of American Revolutions: A Continental History, 1750-1804 From the Introduction to On Palace Green: In my work I have the privilege of reading hundreds of historic letters preserved in libraries and other archives. There is an excitement in being handed a folder of unseen personal letters from the past . . . and a special delight in reading them. I have composed this small book to bring that delight to others. Transcribed in full is an exchange of fifty-six letters written in the winter of 1806-1807 by persons whom most readers are not likely to know. There are no very famous persons in the story, though many were importantly involved in shaping the new nation-and the central event is simply a proposal of marriage. Not one of the letters is from either of the love-struck pair to the other; for though some were written, none have been found....
