Not illustrated. 1893 Excerpt: .guiding and lashing into fury the worst, the basest passions of men! Is it possible that the painter and the poet could Deify and idealize the demons that have held these bloody carnivals? The wretches that have wrought this desolation were the panthers, the hyenas and the ghouls of humanity! The Caesars, the Alexanders and the Napoleons are the bloodthirsty emissaries of hell! English tyranny and avarice must answer for the pains that preceded our national birth, and the first gun that fired on Sumter inaugurated the greatest crime of all the centuries. Think of it--2,778,304 men rushing to arms to save the kindest flag that ever floated in the blue sky! Think of it--359,528 men dying in the ranks of the Union because a few feared that the foot of the tyrant might be taken from the neck of his fellowman! Think of it--during four short years 5,825,480 men were sent to hospital by wounds and disease because a few feared that human hearts and flesh and blood might cease to be things of barter in the market of our country! Think of it--196,629 men captured in battle and incarcerated in prison hells, killing 30,212 by starvation and disease because Abraham Lincoln was fairly chosen by a great people as their Chief Executive! I appeal to you, brave men of many battles, who have seen, and felt, and comprehended! I cry out to you to throw your influence into the scales of thought, and urge...
