Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Latin School Register, Vol. 11: April, 1892 The admission of the Somerville High School into the association by the committee of donors puts a new phase on the contest, as this school has the reputation of having a strong team. Still, this fact is offset some what by the refusal of the committee to admit the Cambridge Manual Training School. The refusal was based on the ground that the school does not prepare students for college, and we hope that this decision will hold good in the case of foot-ball next year.
