

Liturgy and Catholic Identity: A Practical Guide for Catechists (Essential Catechists Bookshelf)

By Peg Bowman

Twenty-Third Publications. Paperback. Condition: New. 96 pages. This important book explores the teaching power of the liturgy and how it enlivens and reignites Catholic identity. Catechists and teachers will discover how the liturgical rites can guide and inspire our teaching, why praying with students is so effective, and how lifelong learning is essential to effective catechesis. Bowman offers time-tested strategies, approaches, and ideas to help catechists and teachers connect Catholic liturgy to any level of religious education, from primary grades through high school and adult formation. This powerful book can help catechists and teachers move beyond simply teaching about the liturgy to a place where they let the Holy Spirit do the teaching. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
