Some people just don t belong together, or at least that s what the world would have them believe. Reese Westfield comes from a world of old money, country clubs, cotillions, and expensive cars. She s tired of dating Warren McCarthy just to make her father happy. Reese has long since had her eye on someone else, and this summer she s determined to make it happen. Growing up in Lake Loveless there has always been a strict monetary divide-there was the rest of the Lake and then there were the Waterman s. Ace Waterman has worked for everything he has, and he doesn t have a lot. He breaks his back doing grunt work while putting himself through college. He s used to life passing him by. Reese has loved Ace from afar for as long as she can remember. The summer of her freshman year she comes home with plans to land Ace in her bed at least for a few short weeks, and, if she s lucky, forever. Ace has loved Reese for as long as he can remember, but their friendship has never graduated beyond platonic, so when Reese comes home from her first year away and proposes the two of them have a summer fling, Ace is quick to comply. The rules: no strings, no expectations, just something hotter than the...
