QUESTIONS FOR WOLF

Thistledown Press, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 211 x 137 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Questions for Wolf, Shannon Quinn s debut poetry collection, explores desire and memory, examining the damaged lives of characters whose street smarts are their only defense against self-destruction and loss of hope. Quinn s poems delve into a world of inner city mortifications as she contemplates lost innocence and how the longing to be great rather than merely good can drive people to pursue a life along society s margins. From adolescent girls getting a taste of adulthood around a bonfire in Bonfire to the sex workers who hold their own on the dark streets of Quinn s hazy, almost mythical universe, readers are transported through the peculiar urban sprawl of being a girl and presented with a celebratory defiance of the expectations projected onto women. Questions for Wolfis a collection of dark yet delicate poems, celebrating the myth and magic associated with female sexuality and agency. Themes of lost innocence, damaged lives, addiction, and destitution intermingle with a celebration of life outside the margins, as Quinn weaves beautiful narratives out of the ugly bits of life. Stark natural imagery combines with Quinn s magic-infused metaphors as she describes liquid skies filled with stars and the simultaneously soothing and oppressive force of water as it alternates between the serene waves of a fresh hit and the sound-muffling burden placed on revolutionaries chained to the ocean floor . Bears, dogs, elephants, and other strange beasts including carnivorous...
