The worst day of Ammi OSheas life is when finds her self forced into human trafficking where she is forced to live her life under a different name and earn her living in the underground world. Convinced her husband cannot love her anymore, Ammis morale is broken and she cannot see how any other life would be acceptable for her. Each day is worse than the day before. But, Chicago PDs missing persons, led by Detective Moore, is hot on the case. Each lead goes cold as they hit one wall after another. The case finds new life on an anonymous tip which points the detectives in a new direction. Moore calls on SWAT and an FBI entry team for the greatest rescue of all times. Find out if Ammi OSheas worst day of her life will ever end. Heavy Traffick is a modern retelling of Hosea and Gomers love story with a twist of current social justice. It will keep you on the edge of your seat until the last page is swiped. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
